1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Agaléga (Administrative and Judicial Provisions) Act.

2. Interpretation

In this Act—

"Agaléga" means the 2 islands known as—

- (a) "North Island" of an extent of about 3,550 arpents; and
- (b) "South Island" of an extent of about 2,650 arpents, situated in the Indian Ocean approximately between latitude 10° 19' South and latitude 10°29' South and longitude 56°34' East and longitude 56°42' East;

"appeal" includes appeal by way of case stated;

"Commissioner" means the Commissioner designated under section 12;

"supplies law" means—

- (a) the Consumer Protection (Price and Supplies Control) Act or any regulations made thereunder;
- (b) any other enactment regulating trade, supply, and prices;

"Visiting Magistrate" means the Magistrate to whom Agaléga is assigned under section 97 of the Courts Act.

S. 2 amended by Act [29 of 1992.]

3. Application to Agaléga of certain enactments

Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the District and Intermediate Courts (Civil Jurisdiction) Act, the District and Intermediate Courts (Criminal Jurisdiction) Act, the Criminal Procedure Act and the Courts Act shall apply to Agaléga.

4. Jurisdiction in the Island of Mauritius

- (1) In any case in respect of an offence committed, or a cause of action arising, in Agaléga, the Visiting Magistrate may exercise his jurisdiction either in Agaléga or in the Island of Mauritius, or partly in Agaléga and partly in the Island of Mauritius.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Visiting Magistrate may make an order and take all necessary measures for the attendance in the Island of Mauritius of any witness who is a resident of Agaléga.
- (3) For the purpose of exercising his jurisdiction, the Visiting Magistrate shall hold his Court—
 - (a) in the Island of Mauritius, in the building designated for the District Court of Port Louis; and
 - (b) in Agaléga, in a building designated by the Chief Justice.

5. Jurisdiction of Visiting Magistrate

- (1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Visiting Magistrate shall—
 - (a) have jurisdiction in any proceedings for an offence under a supplies law;
 - (b) have jurisdiction in all cases of claims for taxes, rents or other civil debts of any nature due to the State in Agaléga, irrespective of the amount of the claim;
 - (c) subject to subsection (2), have jurisdiction to hear and dispose of any case referred to in section 112 (d) and (f) of the Courts Act which, in the Island of Mauritius, would, upon a reference by the Director of Public Prosecutions, be cognisable by the Intermediate Court.
- (2) Subject to section 7, the Visiting Magistrate and the Intermediate Court, as the case may be, shall have concurrent jurisdiction for the trial of a case under the Bankruptcy Act.
- (3) In the exercise of his jurisdiction in Agaléga, the Visiting Magistrate shall, in respect of penalties and forfeitures, be vested with the same powers as are conferred by section 113 of the Courts Act upon the Intermediate Court.
- (4) Where a plaint is entered for the recovery of rent or other civil debt, the Visiting Magistrate may, after satisfying himself that an order ought to be granted, issue an order for the provisional seizure of the goods, chattels, effects and other movables of the defendant.

S. 5 amended by Act [48 of 1991; Act 29 of 1992.]

6. Time for prosecuting appeal

Notwithstanding—

- (a) section 37 of the District and Intermediate Courts (Civil Jurisdiction) Act; and
- (b) section 93 of the District and Intermediate Courts (Criminal Jurisdiction) Act, an appeal from a judgment of or conviction by the Visiting Magistrate sitting in Agaléga may be prosecuted before the Supreme Court within one month from the arrival in the Island of Mauritius of the first vessel that left Agaléga after the date of the judgment or conviction which is the subject of the appeal.

7. Additional powers of Visiting Magistrate

- (1) Where a matter is pending before the Intermediate Court or a District Court and the Court wishes to hear the evidence of a witness who is a resident of Agaléga, a Magistrate of that Court may issue an order for the Visiting Magistrate to record de bene esse the evidence of the witness.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), section 174 of the Courts Act shall have effect as if the evidence of the resident of Agaléga was required in a matter before the Supreme Court.

8. Appointment of ushers

- (1) Summonses, orders, writs and warrants and any extra-judicial process which may be required to be served or executed in Agaléga shall be served or executed, as the case may be, by a police officer not below the rank of Sergeant who shall be designated by the Visiting Magistrate to act as usher.
- (2) An usher designated under subsection (1) shall not be required to furnish security and shall have all the powers and privileges of an usher of the District Court or of an usher of the Supreme Court for the purpose of executing all writs and serving all processes which can be executed or served within Agaléga by an usher of the Supreme Court.

- (3) The court fees payable for any act or service required to be performed by an usher designated under subsection (1) shall be taxed at half the fees payable under the Legal Fees and Costs Rules 2000.

[S. 8 amended by Act 15 of 2000.]
