Social Aid Act
Act 2 of 1983

Commenced on 1 December 1983

[This is the version of this document at 30 June 2017.]

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Social Aid Act.

2. Interpretation

In this Act—

‘approved medical practitioner’ means a medical practitioner approved by the Minister;

‘child’, in relation to a claimant—

(a) means—

(i) an unmarried person who is under the age of 20; or

(ii) an unmarried person of the age of 20 but not above the age of 23, who is pursuing a full-time course at a tertiary education institution; and

(b) includes a step-child or an adopted child who is living with the claimant;

‘claimant’ means a person specified in section 3(1) and (1A);

‘dependants’, in relation to a claimant, means his spouse and child;

‘Minister’ means the Minister to whom responsibility for the subject of social security is assigned;

‘parent’, in relation to a child—

(a) means his father or mother; and

(b) includes a person who is in charge of him;

‘Permanent Secretary’ means the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry or a public officer designated by him;

‘requirements’, in relation to a claimant, means the requirements specified in section 3(4)(a);

‘resources’, in relation to a claimant, means the resources specified in section 3(4)(b);

‘spouse’ includes a person who is living with a man or woman as his wife or husband;

‘stepchild’, in relation to a claimant, means a child of his spouse or deceased spouse who is not his own child.

[S. 2 amended by s. 39(a) of Act 14 of 2009 w.e.f. 1 July 2009.]

3. Social aid

(1) Subject to this section, a person who, as a result of—

(a) any physical or mental disability;

(b) any sickness or accident certified by an approved medical practitioner; or
(c) —

(d) any sudden loss of employment which has lasted continuously for not less than 6 months, is temporarily or permanently incapable of earning adequately his livelihood and has insufficient means to support himself and his dependants, shall be qualified to claim social aid.

(1A) Subject to this section, where a person—

(a) as a result of abandonment by his spouse; or

(b) being the spouse of the head of a household who is in police custody, has been remanded to jail or is serving a term of imprisonment, is temporarily or permanently incapable of earning adequately his livelihood and has insufficient means to support himself and his dependants, he shall be qualified to claim social aid.

(2) A claimant shall—

(a) apply for social aid to the Minister in the prescribed manner; and

(b) furnish, in support of his application, such information and documents as the Minister may require.

(3) Where the Minister is satisfied that a claimant is qualified to claim social aid under subsection (1) or (1A), he may, subject to such conditions as he thinks fit to impose, grant to the claimant such amount of social aid as meets his requirements.

(4) For the purpose of this section—

(a) the requirements of a claimant—

(i) under subsection (1) shall be computed in the manner specified in Part I of the First Schedule; or

(ii) under subsection (1A) shall be computed in the manner specified in Part III of the First Schedule,

(b) the resources of a claimant shall be determined by the Permanent Secretary in accordance with such criteria as may be prescribed.

(5) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the social aid payable to a claimant shall be the amount by which the resources of the claimant fall short of his requirements after deducting from that amount any benefit or allowance received by him under the National Pensions Act or the Family Allowance Act.

(b) The social aid payable under paragraph (a) shall not be less than the amount specified in Part II of the First Schedule.

(6) Notwithstanding this section, the Minister may grant social aid in such circumstances as may be prescribed.

[S. 3 amended by Act 27 of 1983, s. 39(b) of Act 14 of 2009 w.e.f. 1 July 2009; s. 49 of Act 18 of 2016 w.e.f. 1 October 2016; s. 18 of Act 10 of 2017 w.e.f. 24 July 2017.]

4. Recovery

(1) The Permanent Secretary may recover from the spouse of a claimant, or a person who under any enactment is liable to maintain the claimant, the amount of social aid paid to the claimant under section 3.

(2) In any proceedings under this section, the onus of proving that a person is unable or not liable to maintain a claimant shall lie on the person from whom the amount paid is sought to be recovered.
5. ***

[S. 5 repealed by Act 30 of 1994.]

6. Summons

(1) Where a claimant is, under any enactment, entitled to be maintained by a person, the Permanent Secretary may issue to that person a summons requiring him to pay every month to the Permanent Secretary for the benefit of the claimant such amount as the Permanent Secretary may decide to grant to the claimant under section 3 (5).

(2) Where a person fails to comply with a summons issued under subsection (1), the Permanent Secretary may, on behalf of the claimant, enter an action before the appropriate District Court for an order compelling that person to pay to the Permanent Secretary the amount specified in the summons issued under subsection (1) or such sum as the Court may determine.

(3) Notwithstanding any other enactment, in any proceedings under this section, the onus of proving that a person is unable or not liable to pay the amount of money specified in a summons issued under subsection (1) shall lie upon him.

(4) Where the Court makes an order under this section, the Court may order payment with retrospective effect to the date on which it should have been made in compliance with any summons issued under subsection (1).

(5) Where the Court makes an order under this section, the Permanent Secretary may, by warrant under his hand in the form specified in the Second Schedule, attach in the hands of the employer of the person against whom the order is made one-third of that person's remuneration or the sum awarded by the Court, whichever is the lesser.

(6) Any employer who receives an attachment under subsection (5) shall deduct from the remuneration of his employee the sum specified in the warrant and pay that sum to the Permanent Secretary.

(7) Where there is any change in the circumstances of the person on whom an order has been made under this section, the Court may, on application by any interested party, vary the order.

7. Power to summon witnesses

(1) The Permanent Secretary may, in connection with the determination of any claim for social aid—

(a) by summons under his hand, require the attendance of a person at such time and place as may be specified in the summons; and

(b) examine a person on oath on any matter relating to the administration of this Act.

(2) Any person who, without reasonable cause or justification, fails to comply with a summons issued under subsection (1) shall commit an offence.

(3) A summons under this section shall be—

(a) issued at least 10 days before the date on which the attendance of a person is required; and

(b) served by registered post.
8. Offences

(1) Any person who—

(a) for the purpose of, or in connection with, any claim for social aid, either for himself or on behalf of any other person, knowingly—

(i) makes a false statement or a statement which he knows or ought to have known to be false in any material particular;

(ii) makes a false representation; or

(iii) fails to disclose any material fact; or

(b) otherwise fails to comply with this Act or any regulations made under it, shall commit an offence.

(2) Any person who commits an offence under this Act shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

[S. 8 amended by s. 24 of Act 26 of 2013 w.e.f. 1 January 2014.]

9. Recovery of excess payment

Where a person has received under this Act social aid to which he was not entitled or which he was not qualified to receive, the amount of that social aid may, notwithstanding the restriction imposed by section 5 of the Recovery of State Debts Act, be recovered by the Permanent Secretary in the manner provided for the recovery of a small State debt under that Act.

[S. 9 amended by Act 48 of 1991.]

10. Powers of Minister

The Minister may—

(a) provide for the establishment and management of institutions to look after the care and maintenance of persons who, through age, physical or mental disability, are unable to support themselves;

(b) provide to a private or charitable institution looking after the care and maintenance of persons unable to support themselves such grants and contributions as are specified in the Third Schedule; and

(c) establish for the purposes of this Act such advisory committee as he thinks fit.

11. Regulations

The Minister may—

(a) make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purposes of this Act; and

(b) by regulations, amend the Schedules.
