Certificate of Character Act

Act 18 of 2012

Commenced on 10 October 2012

[This is the version of this document at 30 June 2017.]

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Certificate of Character Act.

2. Interpretation

In this Act—

"absolute discharge" means an order discharging a person absolutely and made under section 197 of the Criminal Procedure Act;

"application" means an application for a certificate;

"certificate" means a certificate of character issued under section 5;

"conditional discharge" means an order discharging a person conditionally and made under section 197 of the Criminal Procedure Act;

"delegated person" means the Commissioner of Police or a public officer to whom the Director of Public Prosecutions has delegated his powers under section 3\(1\);

"employer" has the same meaning as in the Employment Relations Act;

"identity card" has the same meaning as in section 5 of the National Identity Card Act;

"probation order" has the same meaning as in the Probation of Offenders Act;

"worker" has the same meaning as in the Employment Relations Act.

3. Delegation of powers

- (1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may delegate his powers under this Act to the Commissioner of Police or any other public officer.
- (2) No delegation of powers under subsection (1) shall have any effect until public notice of the delegation has been given in the Gazette.

4. Making an application

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), any person wishing to obtain a certificate in his name shall apply to the Director of Public Prosecutions, or to the delegated person, in such form and manner as the Director of Public Prosecutions may approve.
- (2) Every application made under subsection (1) shall be accompanied —
  - (a) where it is made by —
    - (i) a citizen of Mauritius, by the original and 2 photocopies of the applicant's birth certificate, identity card and, where applicable, marriage certificate; or
    - (ii) a non-citizen, by the original and 2 photocopies of the applicant's birth certificate, passport and, where applicable, marriage certificate; and

- (b) by the appropriate fee specified in the First Schedule.
- (3) An employer may, with the written consent of a worker, apply for the issue of a certificate in the name of the worker.
- (4) An application under subsection (3) shall be accompanied by—
  - (a) the documents specified in subsection (2); and
  - (b) the appropriate fee specified in the First Schedule.
- (5) A worker who has been issued with a certificate under section 5 and who has submitted the certificate to his employer shall—
  - (a) not be required by that employer to apply for another certificate within a period of one year from the date of submission of the certificate;
  - (b) notwithstanding paragraph (a), disclose to that employer any conviction for a crime or misdemeanour subsequent to such submission.
- (6) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a person may make an application electronically in such form and manner as the Director of Public Prosecutions may approve and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

[Subsec. (6) not in operation.]

5. Issue of certificate

- (1)
  - (a) The Director of Public Prosecutions or the delegated person, where he is not the Commissioner of Police, shall refer every application to the Commissioner of Police for enquiry and report.
  - (b) Where the delegated person is the Commissioner of Police, he shall cause an enquiry to be conducted into every application.
- (2) Where the applicant has in Mauritius—
  - (a) never been convicted of any crime or misdemeanour;
  - (b) following a conviction for a crime or misdemeanour, other than an offence specified in the Second Schedule, been given only—
    - (i) an absolute discharge; or
    - (ii) a conditional discharge, and has complied with the terms and conditions of the discharge;
  - (c) more than 5 years before making the application, been convicted of a crime or misdemeanour, other than an offence specified in the Second Schedule, and been—
    - (i) given only a fine of up to 5,000 rupees; or
    - (ii) made the subject of a probation order only, and has complied with the terms and conditions of the order; or
  - (d) been granted a free pardon in respect of a crime or misdemeanour pursuant to section 75 of the Constitution, the Director of Public Prosecutions shall issue a certificate in the form set out in Part A or B of the Third Schedule, specifying that the person in whose name the application has been made has never been convicted of a crime or misdemeanour in Mauritius.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) (b) and (c), an offence—
  - (a) under an enactment which is not specified in the Second Schedule; but

- (b) of which the constitutive elements are the same as, or substantially similar to, those of an offence specified in that Schedule,
- shall be deemed to be an offence specified in the Second Schedule.
- (4) Where a person has been convicted of a crime or misdemeanour and none of the circumstances specified in subsection (2) is applicable, the Director of Public Prosecutions shall issue a certificate in the form set out in Part C or D of the Third Schedule.
- (5) Where an applicant requires more than one original of a certificate within a period of 3 months from the date of issue of the certificate, the Director of Public Prosecutions shall, on payment by the applicant of the appropriate fee specified in the First Schedule, issue up to a maximum of 3 originals of the certificate.
- (6) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the Director of Public Prosecutions shall not issue another certificate in the name of a person within a period of 3 months following the issue of a certificate to that person.
- (b) The Director of Public Prosecutions may issue another certificate in the name of a person within the period of 3 months where—
- (i) there has been a material change in the circumstances of that person; or
- (ii) the subsequent application is made by an employer under section 4.
- (7) (a) The Director of Public Prosecutions may authorise a law officer from his Office to issue a certificate on his behalf.
- (b) Where the delegated person is the Commissioner of Police, he may authorise a police officer not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner of Police to issue a certificate on his behalf.

6. Offences and proceedings

- (1) Any person who tampers with, forges or fraudulently alters a certificate shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 8 years.
- (2) A worker who contravenes section 4 (5) (b) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 25,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.
- (3) In any proceedings in which the genuineness of a certificate is in question —
- (a) an attestation under the hand of the Director of Public Prosecutions, or the delegated person, to the effect that a certificate is or is not genuine shall be received in all Courts as conclusive evidence of that fact;
- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions, the delegated person or a law officer authorised to issue the certificate on behalf of the Director of Public Prosecutions, or a police officer authorised by the Commissioner of Police to issue a certificate on his behalf, shall not be examined or cross-examined with respect to the genuineness of the certificate.

7. Protection from liability

- (1) No liability, civil or criminal, shall be incurred by the Director of Public Prosecutions, the delegated person, a law officer or a police officer in respect of any act or omission in the execution, in good faith, of his functions or duties under this Act.
- (2) This section shall be in addition to, and not in derogation from, the Public Officers' Protection Act.

8. Regulations

- (1) The Attorney-General may make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) Regulations made under subsection (1) may provide for—
- (a) the levying of fees and charges;
  - (b) the amendment of the Schedules, including the amendment of the Third Schedule, where the Director of Public Prosecutions has delegated his powers under section 3\(1\).

9. ***
